Dear Parents and Carers,

I am pleased to share that you can click here to view our most recent OFSTED report. The report will be published on the official OFSTED website in the coming days.

We are incredibly proud of the outcome of the inspection and of the recognition given to the hard work, commitment and care shown every day by our staff, pupils and wider school community. In particular, we are especially proud that the school was judged to be 'Strong' in three key areas. Under the new OFSTED framework, this represents a significant achievement, as the expected national standard has been raised considerably and is already proving challenging for schools across the country. OFSTED have stated that many schools are predicted to be judged as either 'Expected' or 'Needs Attention' across the judgement areas under this new framework.

We are particularly pleased that the inspection findings closely matched our own honest and reflective evaluation of the school. OFSTED recognised both our many strengths and the areas we had already identified for further development. Importantly, we had already begun implementing the next steps identified in the report prior to the inspection itself, and this work continues as part of our ongoing commitment to continuous improvement and providing the very best education for our children.

The report reflects the caring, inclusive and ambitious culture that we strive to create every day at High View. We are extremely proud of our pupils and of the positive comments regarding their behaviour, wellbeing, attitudes to learning and the rich opportunities available to them.

I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank all of our parents and carers for your continued support, encouragement and partnership. Our success is only possible because of the strong relationships we have with our families and friends within the community. Your trust and support make a tremendous difference to the children and to the life of the school.

In addition, I would also like to take this opportunity to thank our amazing staff. Their dedication, professionalism and unwavering commitment to the children are what make High View such a special place. Every member of staff works tirelessly to support our pupils and families. This report is a reflection of their passion, care and hard work.

We look forward to continuing to work together as we build on this success and continue to move the school forward.

Many thanks

Robert Claxton
