Welcome to your new adventure! We are so excited to meet you.

Parent Note: Transitioning to EYFS is a big step. This book is designed to read together with your child to help them visualize their new environment, reducing first-day anxiety by focusing on choice and play.

NotebookLM

This is a place where you get to choose. What will you be today?

Parent Note: Our setting is based on 'continuous provision', meaning the environment is set up with resources that children can safely access and explore independently, building their confidence and decision-making skills.

NotebookLM

You can be a Builder. Grab your hard hat and make important plans!

Parent Note: The construction zone develops spatial awareness, gross motor skills, and early mathematical concepts like shape and weight.

NotebookLM

Build a bumpy road and drive right over it!

NotebookLM

You can be a Chef. Cook up a magic mud pie in the outdoor kitchen.

Parent Note: Messy play is crucial for sensory development and encourages imaginative role-play and communication.

NotebookLM

Hunt for autumn treasures, or build a giant waterfall!

NotebookLM

1. Pick your pieces.

2. Use your imagination.

3. Ta-da! A Robot!

Parent Note: Our 'Workshop Style' zones allow children to combine transient art and junk modeling, fostering deep creativity and problem-solving.

NotebookLM

You can be an Artist. Paint on floating windows and draw in bright green sand.

Parent Note: We provide varied canvases beyond just paper—like cellophane and sand—to develop fine motor control in exciting, tactile ways.

NotebookLM

Step inside the Story Factory and make up your own fairy tales.

Once upon a time...

NotebookLM

BULLSEYE!

noise and test your throwing skills!

NotebookLM

How are you feeling today? There is a perfect space just for you.

Feeling energetic?

Feeling quiet?

Feeling messy?

Parent Note: A core part of early years education is self-regulation. By recognizing their own energy levels, children can select environments that best support their emotional needs on any given day.

NotebookLM

The best part of every adventure is sharing it with new friends.

Parent Note:
We actively facilitate collaborative play to help build vital social skills, empathy, and early friendships.

NotebookLM

We can't wait to see what you choose. See you very soon!

Hooray!

Parent Note: We look forward to partnering with you on this wonderful early years journey. See you on the first day!
